On Growth

Lately, I have been reflecting on how our lives can be illustrated through the growth of a tree. For a tree to grow and thrive it needs the optimal soil, sun, and water to obtain nutrients to grow. If a tree doesn't receive one or any of these due to poor conditions or being planted too close to another tree or a building, its growth will be stunted, or worse, it will fail because it is competing with something else. But when a tree finds the right soil and other nutrients, it grows upward and downward to balance itself and maintain its structure. If it isn't competing with anything else, it will flourish year after year and be allowed to reach its full maturity. Throughout the life of the tree it will shed leaves, branches will be pruned, and dead parts removed so that it can prosper and "show off" when it blooms!

Our lives are like a tree. When we are born there is so much hope and expectation. If we receive the optimal amount of nutrients and care, we will grow and mature. We need love from our parents and family. We need a church where we can encounter God and a supportive faith community. We need balanced meals and a good education. We need room to play and explore. These are our roots. When we know our roots are strong, we also start to thrive in our personal and professional lives, eventually finding greater success and fulfillment and starting our own families. And over time, we need to prune things in our life that are dead weight and holding us back. This ranges anywhere from bad habits to insecurities. This is hard to do, but it helps us reach our full maturity that God calls us to as His beloved disciples.

The journey of life is full of twists and turns, and like a tree, it demands growth. In this competitive world where we are fighting to spread our roots, let's just make sure we are putting ourselves in the right spaces for optimal growth and encouraging our brothers and sisters in Christ to join us in doing the same.

The famous redwood or sequoia trees are known to support each other by interlocking their roots with neighboring trees to form a network of connected root systems.

In closing, I hope the next time you look at a tree, you see it in a new light, and see yourself in a new light.

In Christ,
Chris McBride

Virtue Series on Social Media

Do you follow St. Jerome on Social Media? There is lots of great bonus content to help you grow in your faith and stay connected to your parish community. This summer we have been featuring a series on the virtues. Here's a taste of that so far!

Did you know there are seven virtues, broken into the Theological (faith, hope, and love) and the Cardinal (prudence, temperance, fortitude, and justice) virtues? We have been pairing the Catechism and Scripture together to learn about them and strengthen our "virtue muscles!"

An extremely grave amendment has been placed on the November 2024 ballot that seeks to erase pro-life protections by inserting language into the Florida Constitution prohibiting regulation of abortion. The amendment would allow late-term abortions, and would eliminate laws requiring parental consent and safety protocols for women.

The Catholic Church across the state of Florida is urging all Florida Catholics and people of good will to vote "no" on Amendment 4. Florida's general election is Nov. 5th. Early voting begins Oct 26th.

Brown Scapular Investiture and Conferral

In the year 1251, in the town of Aylesford in England, Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock, a Carmelite. She handed him a brown woolen scapular and said, "This shall be a privilege for you and all Carmelites, that anyone dying in this habit shall not suffer eternal fire." In time, the Church extended this magnificent privilege to all the laity who are willing to be invested in the Brown Scapular of the Carmelites and who perpetually wear it.

Investiture and Conferral will be held at the 9:00 AM Mass on July 21st.

Scapulars will be available in the Gathering Space, please pick one up on the way to your seat if you want to participate.

Another great way to support your parish is to consider naming St. Jerome as the beneficiary of one of your life insurance policies, IRA accounts, or adding as a contingent beneficiary to an existing policy. Beneficiaries can also make Stock or Bond Gifts. For owners of a single IRA account, consider adding St. Jerome as a percentage beneficiary. For complete details, contact Chris McBride at the Parish Office.

For the proper method for naming St. Jerome in your will, please ask your attorney to use the following terminology:
"I give devise, and bequeath (amount, article, stock, etc.) to Gregory Parkes, as Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg, and his successors in office, a Corporation Sole, for the use of St. Jerome Catholic Church, 10895 Hamlin Blvd., Largo, FL 33774."
