Tend the Flock

In today's first reading from Jeremiah we hear the Lord in agony over the shepherds he has called to tend to his flock. Jeremiah shares God's words: "You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds."

It could be easy to look at this and think about the faults of priests and bishops over the centuries, but I read this and hear Jeremiah talking to me and to all of us. Vatican II was very clear that as lay people we are all called to preach the Good News, to engage the culture, to help bring people into the Church, and to show love to all we meet. Pope Paul VI stated: "As sharers in the role of Christ as priest, prophet, and king, the laity have their work cut out for them in the life and activity of the Church. Their activity is so necessary within the Church communities that without it the apostolate of the pastors is often unable to achieve its full effectiveness." (Apostolicam Actuositatem, section 10)

Let's reflect on that for a second. The pope said that if we do not evangelize and fulfill our offices of priest, prophet, king, then pastors cannot be truly effective. See how the words from Jeremiah start to apply to us today? I think there is an ideology that has crept into the Church that as long as we are nice and treat others well then people will somehow make the connection that we are Christian and we don't need to explicitly evangelize.

Of course, this doesn't work. Any number of people can be nice and caring without being Christian. Christ makes it clear in the Gospels: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20)

In order for us to respond to the call of Christ we have to ask for the courage to be explicit about our faith. Living a good life is not enough. Everyone has different strengths and spiritual gifts, so maybe you are not personally called to go into the streets and talk to people about Jesus or to give a public talk at a youth group, but there is something specific that God is calling you to do. Maybe it is talking with a coworker or someone at the gym who has questions or maybe even someone on staff at the parish who needs some help.

Let's pray today that we might realize how God is calling each of us to evangelize in our own way. Jesus has chosen us to be instruments of his love, peace, and mercy. Let's answer the call and preach the Gospel to all those we meet. --Tommy Schulz, Diocesan

Msgr. Muldoon says THANKS!!

Many thanks to Fr. Blum and Fr. Cadrecha, Fr. O'Brien, the staff and the wonderful parishioners of St. Jerome for organizing my fabulous Diamond Celebration. I am very grateful to Bishop Parkes, Main Celebrant and Bishop Lynch, Homilist, the Priests, Deacons, Sr. Lucia, the Knights and Ladies of the Holy Sepulcher and the Knights of Columbus who attended. Thanks also for all the prayers, good wishes and gifts I received. The Mass was beautiful, the choir and the orchestra were outstanding. The reception with great helpers was deeply appreciated.

Gifts for the Early Childhood Center Endowment will help the youth of St. Jerome's for years to come. I am humbled that the Education Building and Endowment were named in my honor. Thank you all from the bottom of my heart. Msgr. Brendan Muldoon

You are invited to help this Endowment GROW as a way of honoring Msgr. on his 60th Anniversary. A donation can be made to Monsignor’s Endowment, online at our website, through a check made out to St. Jerome, or cash.

Parishioner Spotlight

We continue to meet and get to know some of our lovely parish family through our Parishioner Spotlight summer series! This week, we say hello to Jerry and Kim Kleeber.

□ How long have you been parishioners at St. Jerome? We have been at St. Jerome since moving to Florida six years ago. It was the first church we attended and we were so impressed we decided to register and get involved right away.

□ What do you love about St. Jerome? We love the close-knit community and friendly people at St. Jerome. We appreciate the number of ministries and activities in which to participate. We feel blessed by having such wonderful clergy and staff at St. Jerome. They all serve to make this a special place and caring parish family.

□ How do you serve at the parish?

o Kim - Funeral Coordinator; Fellowship Committee; Legion of Mary Auxiliary, Sacristan; Eucharist Minister; Alter Server, OCIA sponsor and OCIA presenter this past year.

o Jerry - Praise and Worship Music Ministry; LifeTeen Music Ministry, and Knights of Columbus.

o Both: Small Christian Community

□ Favorite Sports Team: Our favorite sports team is anything in which Notre Dame participates. We are huge Notre Dame fans and Jerry is a graduate. We don't really follow professional sports.

□ Favorite Singer: Our niece, Francesca LaRosa is an upcoming musician/singer in the Christian Music Genre. She specializes in Catholic Music. Several of her psalms, mass parts and songs are sung at St Jerome's. It only seems fitting that she is our favorite singer!

□ A favorite Scripture passage or saint:

o Kim - Little Li: The Child Martyr of the Eucharist in China

o Jerry - St. Francis / St. Peregrine

Landscaping Update

In gratitude for her many years of service to the early childhood program, this lovely Royal Poinciana was planted this week in thanks for Phyllis Steele. The second photo is an example of how it flowers. May the beauty and shade it will provide remind us of the childlike rest we can find in the Lord. God bless you, Phyllis!

An extremely grave amendment has been placed on the November 2024 ballot that seeks to erase pro-life protections by inserting language into the Florida Constitution prohibiting regulation of abortion. The amendment would allow late-term abortions, and would eliminate laws requiring parental consent and safety protocols for women. The Catholic Church across the state of Florida is urging all Florida Catholics and people of good will to vote "no" on Amendment 4. Florida's general election is Nov. 5th. Early voting begins Oct 26th.

Another great way to support your parish is to consider naming St. Jerome as the beneficiary of one of your life insurance policies, IRA accounts, or adding as a contingent beneficiary to an existing policy. Beneficiaries can also make Stock or Bond Gifts. For owners of a single IRA account, consider adding St. Jerome as a percentage beneficiary. For complete details, contact Chris McBride at the Parish Office.

For the proper method for naming St. Jerome in your will, please ask your attorney to use the following terminology:
"I give devise, and bequeath (amount, article, stock, etc.) to Gregory Parkes, as Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg, and his successors in office, a Corporation Sole, for the use of St. Jerome Catholic Church, 10895 Hamlin Blvd., Largo, FL 33774."

An Invitation from the Office of the Lay Pastoral Ministry Institute (LPMI)

So often, people ask how they might grow in their faith. In response to this searching, the Lay Pastoral Ministry Institute was initiated in 1998. The LPMI provides education and formation for laity in the Catholic faith. The program is designed to enhance personal faith and develop intellectual aptitude to enrich personal ministry. It is a four-year program: an informal year of discernment and three years of formal academic training and spiritual growth. Upon completion of the program, participants are formally "commissioned" by the Bishop.

The initial segment of the program, the Year of Discernment, consists of eight Saturday sessions from 9:30AM-3:00PM, at Christ the King Parish, 821 S. Dale Mabry Hwy, Tampa. Classes are monthly starting September 7, 2024 through April 2025. To register & learn more:

<https://www.dosp.org/lpmi/year-of-discernment/> or call the LPMI office at (727) 344-1611. Registrations are due in the LPMI office no later than September 5, 2024.
